INCIDENT IN GEN. LEE'S LIFE.-Hon. H W. Hilliard, ex-member of the Federal Congress, made a speech in Augusta, Ga., at the meeting there held to do honor to the memory of General Lee, in which he said:

"An offer, originating in Georgia, and I believe in this very city, was made to him to place an immense sum of money at his disposal if he would consent to reside in the city of New York and represent Southern commerce. Milicons would have flowed to him. But he doclined. He said: 'No: I am grateful, but I have a self imposed task, which I must accomplish. I have led the Nouve man of the South plish. I have led the young men of the South in battle; I have seen many of them fall under my standard. I shall devote my life now to training young men to do their duty in life."
